Greetings from the Organizing Committee!

It gives us immense pleasure to invite you to ITSCON 2026 - the Annual conference of the Indian Thyroid society, to be held on 14th & 15th August 2026 at Leela Palace, Chennai. This prestigious event will bring together leading Endocrinologists, Endocrine surgeons, Nuclear medicine physicians, researchers and allied specialists from across the country to share knowledge, exchange ideas and discuss advances in the understanding and management of thyroid disorders. The conference will feature plenary lectures by renowned national and international experts, interactive scientific sessions, panel discussions, and symposia. Case-based learning, workshops and opportunities for young researchers to present their work as oral and poster presentation will be available.

Chennai is a leader in medical education and healthcare, boasting world-class universities, research centers and hospitals. The commitment to progress makes it a fitting host for ITSCON, promoting thyroid science in a dynamic academic environment. Tamil Nadu is famed for its ancient temples adorned with ornate towers and intricate stone carvings, many of which are UNESCO World Heritage sites. The state's cultural fabric is woven with classical Carnatic music and Bharatanatyam. Chennai is ranked among the safest metropolitan cities in India and was featured in Lonely Planet's Top 10 Cosmopolitan Cities of the world. Visitors can explore iconic temples, the Marina and Elliot's Beaches and indulge in shopping traditional Kanchipuram silk sarees and local street food.

Your esteemed presence and participation will greatly enrich the academic discussions and contribute to the success of this event. We sincerely look forward to welcoming you to Chennai for this academic feast. Kindly block your dates and join us in making the annual conference of the Indian Thyroid society in Chennai a memorable and impactful gathering. For any queries about the scientific program or your participation, please feel free to contact us or any member of our team. We look forward to welcoming you to Chennai!

Warm regards
